NRA WHITTINGTON CENTER IS PLEASED TO INTRODUCE STEVE WILLIAMS AS SHOTGUN FACILITY MANAGER

Raton, NM. – Nestled in the majestic Sangre de Cristo Mountains of northeast New Mexico and located along the historic Santa Fe Trail, the 33,300 acre NRA Whittington Center is home to a world class shotgun facility. NRA Whittington Center is pleased to introduce Steve Williams as the new manager of this outstanding facility. He and his wife Linda are pleased to make Raton, NM, their new home. Steve comes to us with 16 years of shotgun experience, from 2002-2004 he managed the Oasis Gun Club in Mesquite, Nevada, hosting the Zone 7 sporting clays championship in 2004. Steve is committed to making your shotgun experience at the NRA Whittington Center the very best that it can be.

Whether you are new to the Shotgun sports or an experienced shotgun shooter there is something for everyone, with 11 trap fields, 4 skeet fields, 2 five stand field and a 24 station sporting clays field. Instruction is available for all disciplines. The Shotgun Center is also available for corporate or group outings.

The facility is just a short 225 mile drive from Albuquerque, Colorado Springs and Amarillo. The Shotgun Center is open 7 days a week from 8am to 5pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years Days). The Shotgun Center has many packages available for you and your family to enjoy a unique shooting experience. Steve will be happy to discuss all options with you. Please come out and meet our new team member and enjoy our wonderful shotgun facility. You may contact Steve in advance of your trip at (575) 445-3615 or (800) 494-4853 and ask for the Shotgun Center or email Steve at info@nrawc.org.
